Are you an artist on a budget, who needs an online portfolio? I have a very simple solution. Follow my template design model, modified with your art work, logo, and color scheme, with the option to customize further at an extra hourly/day rate. These template sites start at $800, but can be fixed depending on your needs: number of photos and touchups with resizing. Contact me to get more details and arrange a meeting to discuss your personal needs.
